Dear Adrienne:

Thinking of you all over the weekend and having some idea of how much it would mean to everyone to be on hand. I enjoyed the brief interval here at the building.

Certainly you, Patty and Julia are to be congratulated on such a fine affair. I hope there will be a chance to see you off and on and I shall look forward to catching up on details through the News Letter which I understand is to come "out of the West".

So long for now with all Good Wishes.

Dear Adrienne,

I cannot remember whether I told you I'd let you know definitely my intentions for Sunday or not, but I expect to be there. If I don't hear where it, the tea, is to be, I'll phone your home where I get in.

Enclosed is the list of your class members with addresses.

Here's hoping you have good weather. I know you'll have a wonderful time.

Sincerely,

Charlotte Layton

Dear Adrienne,

Thank you so much for your letter and your copy of Vally's telling about the re-union, and for inviting me to attend any or all of the affairs. I am not sure yet, but I'll try hard to be at the Sunday afternoon tea. I think the re-union is a wonderful idea, and it is great that so many are coming. If we still are in Hamilton, I should be able to get there.

Have you sent an invitation to Miss Smaro? I don't suppose there is any possibility that she could come, but it would be nice for her to feel that she was wanted. You probably have written to her.

I hope you'll have good weather for the three days and a better time even than you have dreamed of. I'll let you know if I cannot make it.

Sincerely

Charlotte Layton
